

BUSTING THE MYTHS ABOUT WIRELESS ACCESS

ASSA ABLOY is changing perceptions and demonstrating why wireless locks are the 21st century solution.

ASSA ABLOY

The simple truth is that by installing wireless electronic locks, you can not only control building security, but also take advantage of significant cost and energy savings. Read on to discover our six myth-busting true facts about wireless access.

6 Myths & 6 True Facts

- 1 Myth: Wireless locks are not secure

Fact: Wireless locks are CE, EN and F certified, even for security doors
- 2 Myth: I'll be forever changing batteries

Fact: Wireless locks typically last up to 40,000 cycles, or 2 years or more
- 3 Myth: Wireless locks will take ages to install

Fact: Cylinders can be installed in less than two minutes, with no drilling
- 4 Myth: Wireless locks will not work with my existing system

Fact: Devices can be integrated into your existing system or implemented as a brand new system
- 5 Myth: Wireless locks do not support diverse credentials

Fact: Doors can be operated with cards, pin code or mobile phones
- 6 Myth: Only large businesses can benefit from wireless locks

Fact: Any business can benefit from quick installation and enjoy great energy savings

Watch the video on YouTube

The global leader in door opening solutions

Wireless access control to suit your needs

ASSA ABLOY offers a suite of powerful access control solutions designed to make it simple for you to upgrade to wireless access.

If you want to upgrade your existing access control system...

Choose Aperio®

Operate more doors with access cards

- Connect more doors to your access control system, wireless and without disruption
- Battery powered wireless devices for all kinds of doors, no cabling is needed
- Get more control with audit trails
- Save time and money with keyless access control
- Solve the lost key problem by using secure RFID cards instead of keys

If you want to install a new access control system...

Choose SMARTair™

A modular system and fully scalable

- Battery powered wireless devices for all kinds of doors, no cabling is needed
- Contactless, keyless technology and cards
- Several administration levels for different requirements
- Easy to add, delete and update user rights; easy to update locks

At a glance

ASSA ABLOY

The global leader in door opening solutions